

Welcome To The Marr Company

America's Finest City is no idle claim when it comes to describing San Diego. Blessed with a huge natural harbor, miles of sun drenched beaches, and a climate that the US Weather Service calls the "best in the USA," San Diego is as close to paradise as one will find on earth. As San Diego County Relocation Specialists, we have helped hundreds successfully move to San Diego.

Cosmopolitan: The arts, music, opera, theatre, museums, parks, the zoo, Balboa Park, and all the civic and cultural amenities one would expect from a large city.

Sports Fun Favorite:

San Diego is home to the the MLB Padres and the NFL Chargers. Don't miss the Padres at their new Downtown stadium Petco Park and you can catch the Chargers at the newly refurbished Qualcomm Stadium, a 62,000 seat area located in Mission Valley.

There's plenty of collegiate teams to catch as well. Don't miss the San Diego Aztecs, football team, as well as a fabulous Aztecs female basketball team.

Del Mar Racetrack is just a quick 20 minutes from downtown.

The Gulls provide ice hockey entertainment at the Sports Arena. And if you're into soccer, you can catch a San Diego Soccer game.

Golfers enjoy literally dozens of gorgeous yet challenging courses throughout the county year-round.

Sights & Sounds:

Some of San Diego's "don't miss" attractions include Sea World, the historic Gaslamp Quarter, the world famous San Diego Zoo and the Wild Animal Park, The Reuben H. Fleet Space Center and Museum of Man in Balboa Park, and the Palomar Observatory--and that's just to name a few.

Location, Location, Location:

San Diego is situated on the beautiful Pacific Ocean, approximately 100 miles south of Los Angeles. Our southern boarder is shared with Mexico. The boarder towns of Tijuana and Tecate offer a totally different culteral, culinary and shopping experience that's just minutes away. Ensenada, a duty-free port, with its own special charms, is located just 70 miles south of the boarder via a modern toll road.

Bring on the Food: The distinguished palate is as likely to be satisfied in San Diego as any serious metropolitan area. You name it, you can find it at our plethora of restaurants. The emphasis however, is California Cuisine and a dazzling array of delicious fresh seafood.

Education: In addition to a fine public and private primary and secondary system, San Diego is home to some of the finest institutions for higher learning in the country, including San Diego State University; University of California; San Diego; University of San Diego; United States International University, Scripps Research Institute, and a dozen more community and private institutions showcase our commitment to quality education.

Population & Housing:

San Diego County is expected to increase in population by 49% by the year 2015, to 3.76 million residents. This equates to an average of 49,000 new residents annually since 1990. To accommodate our population growth, we will have an additional 422,000 housing units by 2015. Based on current trends, household size in 2015 will be approximately 2.75 persons*.
